

James P. Valin, MD, MHA, FACP
Executive Vice President, Chief Clinical Officer

J.P. Valin, MD, FACP, joined SCL Health as President of Medical Group and Provider Services in September 2016, and assumed the role of Executive Vice President and Chief Clinical Officer in February 2018.

As Chief Clinical Officer, Dr. Valin is responsible for integrating and providing direction for all clinical activity across the continuum. All clinical programs have been aligned under Dr. Valin including the SCL Health Medical Group, acute care clinical operations, Quality, Safety and Risk, and Medical Informatics to maximize Clinical Integration and Alignment.

In his role, Dr. Valin provides strategic and operational leadership to employed providers and Medical Group associates in each region as well as the system-level Provider Services associates and support services. He manages the full scope of the Medical Group and Provider Services division to achieve a thriving delivery structure, successful performance improvement standards, a highly attractive practice environment for providers, and improved clinical quality, population health and financial outcomes.

Dr. Valin joined SCL Health from Banner Health in Greeley, Colorado, where he served in various leadership roles for 10 years. He practiced clinically for 15 years as both a full scope general internist and as a full time hospitalist. He is a graduate of Georgetown University and New York Medical College, and completed his Internal Medicine Residency at New York Presbyterian - Weill Cornell in New York City. Dr. Valin completed the Health Management Academy - GE Fellows Program for Physician Executives in 2015, and holds a Masters in Healthcare Administration from the Health Management Academy/University of Providence. He is certified by the American Board of Internal Medicine and is a Fellow of the American College of Physicians.

Dr. Valin was a recipient of the Clinician Experience Project's CEO Award of Excellence in December, 2020 and received special recognition from the Leapfrog Group for Pandemic Heroism from The Leapfrog Group. In August, 2021 he received the What's Right in Health Care® Hero Award, which is given out by Huron, a global healthcare consultancy, to honor individuals who are having a positive impact on the healthcare industry.

Updated 9-1-21