Dr. Rubinstein received his medical degree from the University of North Carolina Medical School at Chapel Hill. He completed an internship in internal medicine at Boston City Hospital. Dr. Rubinstein also completed a critical care fellowship at Massachusetts General Hospital and then a cardiology fellowship at the University of Colorado Health Sciences Center. Dr. Rubinstein is board certified in cardiology and interventional cardiology.

Dr. Rubinstein developed a research interest in reperfusion injury, however went into private practice when he joined SCL Health in 1990. He has a specific interest in new technical advances of interventional cardiology, as well as issues faced by elderly individuals regarding cardiac disease and care.

Dr. Rubinstein spends most of his free time with three children, and staying physically active by enjoying skiing and mountain biking.

Overview

Certifications
- Amer Brd Internal Medicine-Interventional Cardiology
- Amer Brd Internal Medicine-Cardiovascular Disease
- Amer Brd Internal Medicine
- Amer Brd Internal Medicine-Critical Care

Education
- University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill School of Medicine, Medical School

Internships
- Boston University Medical Center Program

Residencies
- Boston University Medical Center Program

Fellowships
- Massachusetts General Hospital
- University of Colorado Health Sciences Center

Affiliations
- Good Samaritan Med Center, Lutheran Medical Center, Saint Joseph Hospital, SCL Health Medical Group

Schedule Online

Schedule an appointment with Jeffrey D Rubinstein, MD

Do not use this site if you have an urgent or life threatening health problem. If this is an emergency, please dial 9-1-1 or go to the nearest emergency department.

By clicking the buttons below you will see the provider's availability for online scheduling of each appointment type. Not all appointments at all locations for this provider are made available online. You can call 303-318-2460 if you need to be seen earlier.
A routine examination of a patient after medical or surgical treatment.

Patient has received services from this provider or another provider within the same office within the last three years and needs an appointment for specific symptoms.